WORSHIP

From Your Pastor

Last Sunday was the Feast of the Epiphany of the Lord. Epiphany means the revelation of Jesus to the world. The revelation continues, today, with the Baptism. Today we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord. We hear God using both inside and outside voices as He speaks to us. In the First Reading from Isaiah 42:1-4.6.7, God tells us that the servant who will bring justice to the Nations will do it quietly, not shouting, not crying out, not making His voice heard in the street. Yet this beloved Servant is being sent to open the eyes of the blind and be a light for those in the darkness quietly serving and loving.

Today we celebrate our own Baptisms as well as Jesus and to listen to the volume as God speaks to us each day. Our Baptism means we are sent by God into the World to carry God's message of love. Isaiah says that we are sent to bring light and love to the blind, to those who are imprisoned and live in darkness. We are to bring justice to those who are poor and oppressed, in big and small ways, in soft and loud voices.

At our Baptism, we (our God parents answered questions asked by the Presider: what are you looking for? Faith. What does faith hold out for you? Everlasting life.

Today, too, we call to mind and pray for the Church or Parish where we were Baptized, the Priest who Baptized us, our Godparents, and all those who assisted in our Baptism. They all played indispensable roles at the beginning of our journey of faith. Prayerfully, today we celebrate our Baptism-Day.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Mensaje Del Parroco, P. John Tibakunirwa.

El Domingo pasado fue la fiesta de la Epifanía del Señor. Epifanía significa la revelación de Jesús al mundo. La revelación continúa, hoy, con el Bautismo. Hoy celebramos el Bautismo del Señor. Escuchamos a Dios usar voces interiores y exteriores cuando nos habla. En la Primera Lectura de Isaías 42:1-4.6.7, Dios nos dice que el siervo que traerá la justicia a las Naciones lo hará en silencio, sin gritar, sin clamar, sin hacer oír su voz en la calle. Sin embargo, este Siervo amado ha sido enviado para abrir los ojos de los ciegos y ser una luz para los que están en la oscuridad, sirviendo y amando en silencio. Hoy celebramos nuestro Bautismo y el de Jesús, y escuchamos el volumen con el que Dios nos habla cada día. Nuestro bautismo significa que Dios nos envía al mundo para llevar su mensaje de amor. Isaías dice que somos enviados para llevar la luz y el amor a los ciegos, a los que están encarcelados y viven en la oscuridad. Debemos llevar la justicia a los pobres y oprimidos, de formas grandes y pequeñas, en voz baja y alta. En nuestro Bautismo, nosotros y los padrinos responden a las preguntas formuladas por el Celebrante: ¿qué buscas? La fe ¿Qué te ofrece la fe? La vida eterna. Así También hoy recordamos y rezamos por la Iglesia o Parroquia donde fuimos bautizados, por el Sacerdote que nos bautizó, por nuestros Padrinos y Madrinas y por todos los que asistieron a nuestro Bautismo. Todos ellos desempeñaron un papel indispensable en el comienzo de nuestro camino de fe. Celebremos hoy, en oración, el día de nuestro Bautismo.

Con profunda tristeza en nuestros corazones, queremos informarles el fallecimiento de quien fue nuestro Párroco por más de 10 años. Nuestro Sacerdote, Nuestro gran Amigo, Nuestro Hermano, Nuestro muy amado, Padre Mark Mengel a regresado a la casa del Padre. El Padre Mengel, sirvió fielmente a nuestra parroquia El Santo Nombre como administrador desde el 2008 hasta su jubilación en Agosto del 2018. Fue ordenado Sacerdote el 5 de Junio, del 1971 en la iglesia Holy Cross en Holyoke. Después de la ordenación, fue asignado a la obra misionera en Chile, donde aprendió el Español y sirvió como párroco de Nuestra Señora de El Olivo, atendiendo a una zona de aproximadamente 80.000 personas. Recordemos al Padre Mark Mengel con gratitud y seguiremos orando por el descanso de su alma. Que descanse en paz Nuestro querido Padre Mark Mengel.

Queremos darles nuestras mas expresivas gracias a todos los que participaron en la celebración de los Tres Reyes Magos el pasado Domingo en esta su Parroquia, El Santo Nombre. Un agradecimiento especial para todos aquellos que tanto se esforzaron para que este evento quedara tan bonito. A los que asistieron, A los que donaron, a los Cocineros, a los Servidores, a los Músicos, a los que se quedan siempre hasta el final asegurandose que todo quede limpio. A todos ustedes Mil Gracias!! Sus contribuciones realmente hicieron que este evento halla sido memorable. Dios les bendiga grandemente.

Estamos buscando agrandar nuestro grupo de voluntarios para todos los eventos de la Parroquia el Santo Nombre.
